HOLY HEROES®

Below are a few items from the Holy Heroes Catholic Name-it Game. The selected items are all related to the priesthood. Trace the words for each of the objects and then draw a line from the name of the image to the correct object.

Biretta

A stiff square cap with three or four ridges on top and sometimes a tuft. It is worn by cardinals (who wear red), bishops (purple), priests, deacons, and seminarians (who all wear black).

Cassock

A long robe worn by clergy. The color and trim determines the rank. The Pope wears an entirely white cassock, cardinals wear black with scarlet, bishops black with red, priests and seminarians wear all black.

Crosier

A staff shaped like a shepherd's crook carried by bishops and abbots representing their role as shepherds of human souls.

"Priest's" Hands

While there isn't a proper name for this gesture, you will see the priest place his hands like this over the offerings of bread and wine during Holy Mass when he prays for the Holy Spirit to come down upon them before the Consecration.

Keys of Peter

The keys to the Kingdom of Heaven that Jesus entrusted to Saint Peter, making him the first Pope of the Catholic Church (Matthew 16:19).

Mitre

A tall hat made up of two cone-shaped parts that are joined at the base. The miter has two pieces of material trailing down the back. It is worn over a zucchetto by bishops and abbots during certain ceremonies.

Zucchetto

A skull cap with a knot or braid in the center which is worn by clergy. The Pope wears white, cardinals scarlet, purple for bishops, and black for abbots.
